About Octave Digital

Octave Digital is a specialist digital and social media marketing and training company, operating across Ireland.

Our training enables organisations to quickly build their knowledge, understanding and skills in core areas of digital and social media marketing and content production – from social media to video.

We've been delivering impactful, expert-led training since 2010 – helping clients significantly improve staff knowledge, understanding and skills across key digital and social media platforms.

We're proud to have boosted in-house digital skills through the design and delivery of over 200 training courses and projects to organisations across Ireland, including:

- Financial Service and Pensions Ombudsman Ireland
- Sherry FitzGerald Lettings
- The Institute of Public Administration
- Tipperary County Council
- South Dublin County Council

So Why Choose Octave Digital?

Expert-led training courses:

All courses are designed and delivered by highly experienced marketing and content professionals - from social media content writers to video directors.

Seasoned Trainers:

All trainers have gained very significant experience in delivering professional training to clients – and each trainer offers their unique experience in their respective area

Tailored To You:

All our training is designed and delivered for individual clients, ensuring all the course content and the level is suitable for their staff needs. To maintain quality levels, we do not deliver general, public courses for multiple organisations.

Results:

Clients benefit from the peace of mind that comes with our quality, professional training service – as demonstrated by our excellent course feedback and Recommendations.

About Our Training

Octave Digital offers a full suite of digital and social media training. Clients benefit from:

- Delivered by an experienced trainer – who’s an expert specialist in their field (e.g Instagram, Facebook; or Video production)
- Materials: Full course slides, and recording of the online version of the training
- Pre-Training Needs Assessment
- Bespoke content tailored for the needs of each client
- Flexible Delivery In-person or online delivery

Typically our clients require Social Media training based on either:

- A bespoke course covering several social media platforms and guidance / strategy on implementation
- A bespoke individual training course based on one platform – such as LinkedIn or Twitter

Delivery

We offer clients a choice of:

online training delivery

in-person delivery.

Given the many advantages of online delivery, including the flexibility it offers, most of our clients do prefer this option. However, we also deliver an in-person option for all of our courses if required.

Tailored to Your Sector

Octave Digital also has a specialist approach to our training based on the organisational requirement. We have developed courses and content that are especially designed for:

- Small Businesses and Corporate: Marketing and Advertising
- Small Businesses and Corporate: Lead Generation and Sales
- Public, Government and Local Authorities
- HR/ Recruitment
- Customer Service

Our Experience

We're proud to have boosted in-house digital skills through the design and delivery of over 200 training courses and projects to organisations across Ireland, including:

An Roinn Leanaí, Comhionannais, Míchumais, Lánpháirtíochta agus Óige
Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth

Social Media for Customer Service

Bespoke training for customer service teams. Improve your strategy and skills for managing customer complaints and interactions via social media.

Communicating with customers via social media has become vitally important for many organisations.

While social media enables customer care teams to respond and interact rapidly, it also creates particular challenges which require investment in staff skills, management and resources.

The Social Media for Customer Care Service is the only dedicated service for customer teams in Ireland.

It is focussed on significantly improving the ability of customer service teams to:

- Quickly improve staff knowledge and skills in social media
- Benefit from an approved style guide on social media
- Deal professionally with customer queries via social media
- Handle difficult situations on social media

The Octave Digital Social Media for Customer Care Service is unique in Ireland. While there are many social media training classes available, our service and training are focussed on the exact needs of customer service teams, who need to build a strategy for dealing with customer complaints and to improve their customer service handling skills rapidly.

Workshop Content

The training will focus on the critical areas of excellent customer service on social media, feedback from the review and learning from best practice. There's a strong emphasis on practical exercises and group discussion throughout the training with attendees gaining experience across a wide range of social customer service scenarios from monitoring comments though to complaint handling.

- Introduction to Social Media

Workshop Content

In our Smartphone Video Training course, you will learn how to produce great quality video content on your Smartphone. Delivered by a professional videographer, we can teach you the skills to storyboard, shoot and edit video content...

Format

Four Sessions of 2.5 hours

Session 1

Analysis of well-made corporate promotional pieces to illustrate best practice in capturing and editing videos. This can include analysing any past videos made by participants and how they can be improved upon.

We will cover a comprehensive, practical how-to on the following elements:

- How to operate a camera in different situations
- Shutter angle and motion
- Composition – the Rule of Thirds
- Choice of location and background
- Sound – best practice in recording clean sound
- Straight recording vs dual audio recording
- Lighting – the three-point lighting technique

Assignment:

Each participant / team will write a treatment and film a mock corporate video and apply what was learned in a real-world scenario. This will involve participants interviewing each other / themselves or a family member and filming relevant cutaways as per their storyboard / script.

Session 2

Part 1: Review of the footage captured during the week and real-time feedback. Listening to feedback on their own work and also the work of other participants will help solidify and bring to life all that was learned in session 1.

Part 2: Introduction to editing including media management and basic editing techniques in Davinci Resolve.

Assignment:

Each participant to re-shoot elements of their previous efforts as needed based on feedback from the trainer.

Session 3

Each participant will edit their corporate film in Davinci Resolve and learn advanced editing techniques, including:

- Applying effects, transitions and retiming clips
 - Zooming in and repositioning a shot
 - Stabilising a shaky shot
 - Changing the colour of a shot
 - Adding lower thirds
 - Adding subtitles
 - Where to source copyright free music and how to mix it into your video.

Session 4

A continuation of editing allowing participants to ask the trainer questions in breakout rooms. This will be followed with a screening including trainer feedback of each corporate video made.

Equipment and Tech Requirements

Participants will need a:

- Smartphone Tripod
- Smartphone holder
- The Filmic Pro app downloaded on their phone (paid)
- Davinci Resolve downloaded on their computer (free)

About the Trainer

Patrick is a highly experienced video director, producer specialising in video production training. As an Associate of Octave Digital, he manages all in-house video training and has previously delivered video training courses to:

- Enniskillen Castle
- RSM Accountancy Ireland
- The Roads Safety Authority Ireland
- The Arts Council of Northern Ireland
- Housing Rights Service NI

Patrick is a filmmaking lecturer at Pulse College and Griffith College and also teaches bespoke courses to businesses through Ireland and the UK. An award-winning film director working between Belfast and Dublin, his short films have screened at numerous major film festivals around the world including Bafta® and Academy Award® qualifiers Palm Springs Shortfest, Raindance, Audi Dublin International Film Festival and London Short Film Festival.

Video Training Service (Camera Based)

Gain the practical skills to produce great quality short videos in-house.

Octave Digital provides a video production training service designed especially to fully boost in-house skills. Delivered by a highly experienced video director and trainer who will ensure your team can successfully plan, shoot, and edit their own in-house video content.

The course will bring you and colleagues from having zero / limited knowledge through to teaching you everything you need to do practically to create short videos.

The course contains a wide variety of examples and practical exercises – and you'll be guided every step of the way in creating your own content.

Key Benefits

Our video training course is one of our most sought-after courses and is delivered across Ireland.

We have successfully delivered video training to organisations including The Southern Assembly, The Roads Safety Authority Ireland and The Arts Council of Northern Ireland, helping them to:

- Understand the range and cost options for video equipment
- Learn practical production and editing skills from an established video director and trainer
- Learn how to promote their videos content online

Format

- 1.5 and 2 day options
- In-Person

In-person courses are typically delivered at the client’s location – and we deliver the service all over Ireland.

Video Training Service Outline

Typically, our in-house video training course consists of the following elements:

- Training Needs Assessment
- Camera Operation
- Video Production
- Video Content Editing
- Promoting Your Videos Effectively

Training Needs Assessment

We will meet with you to assess your requirements and team skills in video production. As part of this short process, we will review:

- Any video content you have produced
- Individual team experience in producing video content
- Existing camera and video editing equipment / future investment

Camera Operation

We start off the training session with a comprehensive, practical how-to on the following elements:

- How to operate a camera in different situations
- Shutter angle and motion
- Composition – the Rule of Thirds
- Choice of location
- Sound – best practice in recording clean sound
- Straight recording vs dual audio recording
- Lighting – options and the three-point lighting technique

Video Production

Using Final Cut Pro (or chosen programme), your team will learn how to master the following areas:

- Media management
- Basic editing techniques including three-point editing
- Applying effects, transitions and retiming clips
- Zooming in and repositioning a shot
- Stabilising a shaky shot

Video Content Editing

After the team has learned to shoot the content effectively, the team will edit the footage, focussing on telling the story clearly and effectively, adding titles and music where appropriate, and upload the videos onto the internet.

“Octave Digital delivered a two-day course at the Arts Council offices and provided us with an extremely comprehensive overview of the practices and processes involved in film production. Patrick was highly organised, he had a clear and defined agenda for the course and early established our organisational requirements and objectives.”

Donal Monaghan, Digital Content Officer, Arts Council of Northern Ireland

Smartphone Photography Training

Effective Social Media relies on quality, attractive content. However so much social media content suffers from dull and poorly taken photography. Smartphones contain lots of fantastic features for capturing and editing stunning shots – but they need to be used in the right way!

In our Smartphone Photography Course, professional photographer and trainer Paul Crawford will teach attendees how to take and edit high quality, impactful photos – using smartphones.

The course is designed for in-house teams to need to improve their photography skills, and is delivered online, or in-house, if required.

The half-day course will teach attendees:

- Introduction to key principles of taking good quality photography
- Improving composition and positioning of your subject

- Lighting: Using light to create beautiful images
- Cropping Images to improve composition quality
- Recommended editing apps to improve brightness, colour and contrast.

“ Paul delivered an excellent online LinkedIn training session to our marketing team. It was clear, comprehensive and interactive. I loved the fact we actually used the training course to develop some live LinkedIn ads as this proved very beneficial and great use of the time. I would highly recommend Paul and Octave Digital for LinkedIn training - we plan to have him back for a wider company training session in the near future!

“Paul’s work and expert knowledge enabled us to quickly understand the key improvements required to utilise social media effectively. Wicklow County Council now have a clear framework for managing social media, best practice examples on great social media content and practical skills for staff. I would certainly recommend Paul to other local authorities who need to improve their social media performance.”

Lorraine Gallagher: Senior Executive Officer,
Enterprise and Corporate Services, Wicklow County Council

“Excellent workshop. Really helped to focus my thoughts and high-quality content. Will make a real impact on my marketing strategy. Overall, a highly effective and useful workshop. Thank you in particular to Paul whose delivery was excellent.”

Trainee on Digital Marketing Strategy Course, South Dublin County Council

“Excellent training, completely changed my view on having to do the social media for my company. The training allowed me to find my own rhythm and ways of creating my content which has given me an enthusiasm that I never had before. A huge thank you to Ruth for helping me discover the digital marketer in me!”
